

PRESIDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY

Being an officer in the SkillsUSA Organization is an honor that carries specific responsibilities.

SkillsUSA officers must be concerned about the organization's purposes and its successful and efficient functioning. They must prepare themselves for these responsibilities by:

- Studying and practicing to become more skillful in their duties
- Developing a complete knowledge of SkillsUSA's constitutions and bylaws
- Approaching issues objectively to make decisions for the good of all members
- Carrying out duties thoroughly, on time and to the best of their abilities
- Working cooperatively to make their leadership strong and effective and to ensure the organizations success.

Officers should remember they were selected to lead for one year. In accepting their offices, they assume the responsibility of doing everything they can to make this organization better and stronger.

Local Chapter President's Responsibility

- Presides over all chapter meetings
- Works with and encourages others to work for the chapter
- Possesses the ability to delegate effectively
- Makes impartial judgments
- Keeps members informed
- Conducts meetings using parliamentary procedure
- Refer to the "SkillsUSA Leadership Handbook" for Officer and their duties

District President's Responsibility

- Presides over all District meetings
- Works with and encourages others to engage in district activities
- Possesses the ability to delegate effectively
- Makes impartial judgments
- Keeps members informed
- Conducts meetings using parliamentary procedure

State President's Responsibility

- Presides over all State meetings
- Works with and encourages others to engage in State activities
- Possesses the ability to delegate effectively
- Makes impartial judgments
- Keeps members informed
- Conducts meetings using parliamentary procedure